

Disclosure

The prosecution has a duty to disclose all evidence it intends to rely upon at trial.

Disclosure may include:

- Witness statements
- Police reports
- Photographs
- Medical reports
- Recorded interviews
- CCTV or other digital evidence

The disclosure package is a critical part of the proceedings. A defendant should review it carefully, even where represented by an attorney.
